Stroll down to our peaceful private beach and hunt for sea glass and shells in the sand.

Saturday Dinner Party- Wine Tasting & Cooking Class

Chef Sean Dailey will describe the evening's menu with ingredients sourced from locally available farm to table produce and the freshest meats or fish from organic vendors. He'll share his secrets for creating unique sauces and dishes with an international flair.

Have fun helping in the preparation or encouraging participants the creation of a five course gourmet dinner. Chef Dailey provides hands on instruction and his New England wit and charm make for both an educational and entertaining evening.
